

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 02/12/2024

This Privacy Policy outlines the data collection, usage, and security practices of '/Game' ("Software"). By launching or using this Software, you consent to the collection and use of data as described below. Please read this Privacy Policy carefully.

1. Data Collection

Once the Software is launched, it may access and collect information from your device. The data collected includes, but is not limited to:

- Metadata: Information about files, system usage, and application activity, such as the names of files and directories that are being accessed.
 - Application Usage Data: Information about how you interact with the Software, such as features used, session duration, and frequency of use.
 - System Configuration: Information regarding the hardware and software environment, including system configuration details like operating system version and device specifications.

2. Data Usage

The data collected may be used for the following purposes:

- Improving the Software's Functionality: The collected data helps us understand how the Software is used, identify bugs, and enhance features to improve your experience.
 - Analytical and Research Purposes: We may analyze usage patterns and system performance to optimize the Software's design and functionality.
 - Commercial Data Sale: Non-personal data, including but not limited to metadata and system configuration data, may be sold to third parties for commercial or research purposes. This data does not contain personally identifiable information.

3. Access to Files

By using the Software, you acknowledge that it may have access to most or all of the files on your device. This includes the ability to read, modify, or interact with files stored on your system. You understand and agree to the potential risks associated with granting this access, and you accept that this may include the manipulation of system files as part of the in-game experience.

4. Malware Classification

You acknowledge that the Software's behavior may cause it to be flagged as malicious or potentially unwanted software by antivirus programs or other security tools. This classification may occur due to the nature of the Software's interactions with your device (such as simulated system failures or unauthorized access to files). By choosing to proceed with using the Software, you accept this classification and the associated risks, and you agree to take responsibility for any consequences arising from it.

5. Legal Liability

By using the Software, you understand and agree to the following limitations of liability:

- No Liability for Damages: The developer, publisher, or owner of the Software is not liable for any damages, losses, or claims resulting from the use of the Software, including but not limited to:
 - Loss or corruption of data.
 - Unauthorized data access.
 - Any harm caused to your device or its functionality, whether temporary or permanent.
 - Waiver of Claims: You hereby waive any and all rights to pursue legal action against the developer, publisher, or owner of the Software for any issues, damages, or inconveniences that may arise from your use of the Software.

6. Data Retention and Security

- Data Retention: The collected data is retained for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy, or as required by law.
 - Data Security: While we take reasonable measures to protect the data collected by the Software, no data transmission over the internet or data storage system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure. Therefore, we cannot ensure the absolute security of your data.

7. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. When changes are made, the effective date of the new Privacy Policy will be updated. You are encouraged to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any updates.

8. Consent and Acknowledgment

By launching, downloading, or using this Software, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with the terms of this Privacy Policy, you must refrain from using the Software.

9. Contact Information

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this Privacy Policy or the data collection practices of the Software, please contact us at:
